To see if the Town will vote to amend the General Bylaws, Ch. 180, Historic District and Historic Preservation, §5, Intent and Purpose, and §6, Definitions, by inserting the underlined and deleting the strikethrough as written below, or take any other action relative thereto.

§ 180-5. Intent and purpose.

The Demolition Delay Bylaw is enacted for the purpose of preserving and protecting significant buildings and other structures (barns or out-buildings which are generally associated with the significantly historic building) within the Town of Plymouth which constitute or reflect distinctive features of the architectural, cultural, economic, political or social history of the Town and to limit the detrimental effect of demolition on the character of the Town. Through this bylaw, owners of preferably preserved buildings are encouraged to seek out alternative options that will preserve, rehabilitate or restore such buildings and residents of the Town are alerted to impending demolitions of significant buildings. By preserving and protecting significant buildings, streetscapes and neighborhoods, this bylaw promotes the public welfare by making the Town a more attractive and desirable place in which to live and work. To achieve these purposes, the Plymouth ~~Historic District Commission~~ Historical Commission is authorized to advise the Building Commissioner with respect to demolition permit applications. The issuance of demolition permits is regulated as provided by this bylaw.

§ 180-6. Definitions.

As used in this article, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

COMMISSION — The Plymouth ~~Historic District Commission~~ Historical Commission.

Notwithstanding any existing policy or practice to the contrary, no expenditure or appropriation of said "Surplus Airport Revenue" shall be authorized without a separate affirmative vote of the Town Meeting.

By Petition: Albert DiNardo, et al.

ARTICLE 26: Citizen's Petition – TOWN STEERING COMMITTEE ARTICLE

To see if the Town will vote to rescind and annul the vote taken under Article 27 of April 22, 1991; Article 30 of April 4, 1992; Article 7 of December 1992; Article 38 of April 12, 1994; and Article 38 of April 13, 2004 at the Annual Town Meeting, which established the five Town Steering Meeting committees: Manomet Village Steering Committee, Cedarville Steering Committee, North Plymouth Steering Committee, West Plymouth Steering Committee and Plymouth Center Steering Committee.

And to take action thereafter to establish seven (7) permanent, independent Town Steering Committees comprising of the following areas: North Plymouth Steering Committee, Plymouth Center Steering Committee, West Plymouth Steering Committee, Manomet Steering Committee, Pinehills Steering Committee, Cedarville Steering Committee and Redbrook & South Steering Committee (hereinafter the "committees").

The committees will function as an independent advisory body of the Town to promote civic engagement, steer information back to town-boards, provide independent oversight, advocate the needs of the area, and ensure community interests are represented in the planning and development of the Town initiatives and relevant Town Meeting articles. At the request of a Town Board, Town Meeting Member, commission, committee, department and citizen, the committees may provide guidance or endorse a vote of support on a specific proposal.

The committees shall advise the Planning Board on special permits, variances and subdivision plans from the Planning Department with respect to issues affecting their geographical area. The committees will assist in the implementation of the recommendations outlined in each committee's master plan. When considering any significant action that primarily and directly affects the geographic area served by the committees, the Select Board or its designee shall provide reasonable notice of such pending action to the affected committees.

The committees, as an independent advisory body of the Town – separate from the authority, supervision, and control of any single board, Town Manager, committee, commission or administration department, except as required by Massachusetts General Laws, Town Meeting vote and applicable bylaws, shall strengthen public trust, foster transparency and serve as a liaison between the Town government and the residents of Plymouth. No appointed body (COPC, Select Board, or Planning Board) and town-employed officials shall influence the deliberations or recommendations and what item is placed on the committee's agenda. Members of the COPC shall not serve as appointed steering committee members.

The committees shall function in an advisory capacity only. They shall have no authority to bind the Town, expend public funds, or exercise any executive or legislative power. Recommendations of the committees shall be considered but shall not be binding upon any elected boards.

Members of committees shall be residents of the precinct or precincts that fall principally within the geographic boundaries of the steering committee area. Residents of an adjoining or overlapping precinct may serve on committees if they can demonstrate reasonable geography identity with the steering committee area. The appointing authority shall determine whether a prospective member has demonstrated sufficient geographic identity with the steering committee area. No member may serve simultaneously on two committees.

Membership of each committee shall be seven (7) members appointed for three-years staggered terms. Initial appointment shall be made as follows:

Three (3) members appointed by the Committee of Precinct Chairs (COPC), serving a one-year term;

Two (2) members appointed by the Board of Selectmen serving a two-year term;

Two (2) members appointed by the Planning Board serving a full three-year term.

Committees shall notify the appointed body of members whose cumulative attendance falls below fifty percent (50%) in a twelve – month period.

Any Town Meeting Member who lives in an area defined as “committees” and who is not appointed to the committee shall be non-voting “ex-officio” member with rights to make or second motions.

Meetings are to be conducted in accordance with generally accepted rules of parliamentary procedures and Open Meeting Laws. Robert’s Rule of Order may be used as a guide in matters requiring clarification. Committees may be re-organized at any time and are encouraged to hold meetings within their geographic area to promote community participation.

The committees shall write an annual report voted by committee members, and file it with the Town Clerk’s office for inclusion in the Annual Town Report for the Town of Plymouth. The Town Clerk will notify all Committees of the annual deadline. Failure to submit an annual report does not dissolve the Town Steering Committee. Town Steering Committees may only be dissolved by Town Meeting Members at the Annual Town Meeting.

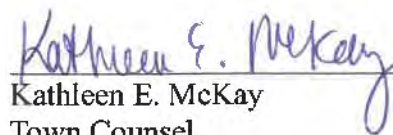

By Petition: Anthony Mayo, et al.

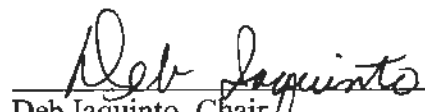

And you are hereby required to serve this warrant in the manner prescribed by vote of the Town by posting notice thereof seven (7) days at least before such meeting in the Town Hall, in the Town's Libraries and posted on the Town's website, and make return thereof with your doings thereon at the time and places above mentioned.

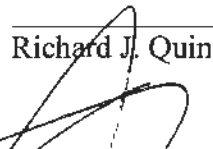

Given under our hands this 15th day of September, 2026.

RE: October 17, 2026 Fall Town Meeting – Request for Remote Participation

Dear Board Members:

Consistent with my duties and responsibilities as Town Moderator for the Town of Plymouth, and pursuant to Chapter 291 of the Acts of 2022, effective December 1, 2022, please consider this a formal request for the Fall Town Meeting be held as a remote hybrid representative town meeting.

The Fall Town Meeting for October 18, 2025 will be a hybrid approach with a remote option for participating individuals if they so choose. This will be conducted, though not limited by, means of a video conferencing platform. I have conferred with Karen Keane, ADA Coordinator, to confirm compliance with the American Disabilities Act for such remote participation.

If authorized, the Fall Town Meeting will be conducted using Zoom Webinar and OTI virtual voting platforms, which have been successfully tested and implemented at prior remote Town Meetings. I certify that: (1) I have tested the video conferencing platform; and (2) the platform satisfactorily enables the Fall Town Meeting to be conducted in substantially the same manner as if the Meeting occurred in person at a physical location and in accordance with the operational and functional requirements set forth in Chapter 291 of the Acts of 2022.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Sincerely,

F. Steven Triffletti
